

A Child is Love

"A Child who lives with gentleness
will touch with gentle hands.

A Child who's understood becomes someone who understands.

A Child who lives with patience learns a way to wait for things.

A Child who's taught to smile at life
is one who laughs and sings.

When Children find acceptance,
that's another trait they learn.

And Children who are loved a lot
will give love in return."